

YARMOUTH TOWN LIBRARIES

ART EXHIBIT POLICY

All exhibits shall be prepared, hung, and dismantled by the artist with assistance from Library staff, according to the following guidelines:

- Library will provide hardware for hanging
- No tags or other adhesives permitted

The artist is responsible for:

- All insurance on art work
- Appropriate framing or suitable display of work
- Pick-up, delivery, storage or shipping of art work
- Submitting a completed release form to the library director prior to the exhibition

Exhibits are open to the public only during the hours the library is open.

Artists are encouraged to provide the Library with a price list for all pieces, and business cards or other contact method for potential sales. People interested in purchasing a work must contact the artist directly.

If a sale is made, the artist is welcome to make a donation to the library.

No artwork will be removed until the exhibit is over.

The library is not responsible for damage to or theft of any artwork exhibited.

The content of an exhibit should be suitable for patrons of all age groups and not of a nature that could discourage patrons from using the library. Exhibits should support the mission, vision, and values of the Library. The Director and/or his/her designee may remove any exhibit item at any time that does not meet these content guidelines. The Director's decision and interpretation of these regulations shall prevail subject to the final decision of the Library Board.
